“When We Get Involved Things Get Solved”

Heather Brungardt, MSW, LCSW, LMSW

Senior Administrative Director of Psychosocial Services

Children’s Mercy Hospital and Clinics

Come and enjoy time networking with friends and colleagues. We’ve invited Heather to lead us in a brief discussion on the impact of how getting involved in health care as social work leaders can go a long way in solving the issues we continue to face. You will also have an opportunity to learn more about the benefits of being a local and national member of SSWLHC.

Beverages and Appetizers will be provided
Please bring a guest- all social workers are welcome!
