ABOUT TRIAGE CANCER

Triage Cancer is a national, nonprofit organization that provides cancer survivorship information, from the point of diagnosis, throughout life. Triage Cancer offers educational events, an international speakers bureau of experts in cancer survivorship, and online educational materials and resources.

Presented by Monica Bryant, Esq., a cancer rights attorney, and Chief Operating Officer of Triage Cancer, this webinar will discuss current and possible future changes to our health care system, including:

- employer-sponsored health insurance;
- individual insurance & Marketplaces;
- Medicaid & Medicare; and
- other types of coverage.

We will also cover what these changes may mean for the cancer community.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- Cancer patients & survivors
- Caregivers
- Advocates & navigators
- Health care professionals
- Anyone with questions about health insurance and our health care system!

CAN'T MAKE IT?

Our webinars are recorded and available for viewing at any time on our website.
