

LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE

PRESENTED BY

Preparing Social Workers to Lead Tomorrow's Challenges

Friday May 1st and Saturday May 2nd, 2020

UCSF Benioff Children's Hospital Center
Outpatient Center Boardroom - Basement Level
744 52nd Street, Oakland, CA 94609

Friday 8:30 am – 5:00 pm, Saturday 8:30 am – 12:00 pm

Registration: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/sswlhc-leadership-institute-2020-tickets-92093007665>

SSWLHC Members - $195.00

Non-Members - $225.00

NASW Sponsored - California BBS CEU's pending for LCSW's

Learning Objectives

Upon Completion, participants will be able to:

- Appreciate, demonstrate, and communicate the unique role of social work leaders and leadership.
- Identify assumptions about leadership; understand personal leadership styles and competencies.
- Identify core leadership competencies and articulate ways to leverage them to achieve specific goals.

Karen Nelson, MSW, MBA

Karen is a graduate of the MSW program at Wilfrid Laurier University and received an MBA from the Telfer School of Management in Ottawa. She has practiced and held leadership positions across Canada and abroad in the fields of mental health, rehabilitation, pediatric care, acute care hospitals, school social work and the criminal justice system. She has served as a member of the Board of the Ontario Association of Social Workers as well as the Society for Social Work Leadership in Healthcare and has been a frequent presenter at national and international conferences. She directs Social Work and Case Management at Stanford Health Care in Palo Alto, California.

Tim Seay-Morrison, LCSW, ACM

Timothy is the Administrative Director of Patient Care Services at Stanford Health Care. He leads the clinical and operational functions of the Departments of Social Work & Case Management, Rehabilitation Services, Respiratory Care Services, Clinical Nutrition and the Palliative Medicine & Geriatrics service lines. Tim is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker and Accredited Case Manager. He has a Bachelor of Music from the University of Miami and a Master of Social Welfare from UCLA. He is a board member of the Society for Social Work Leadership in Healthcare and is on the editorial board of Collaborative Case Management, the journal of the American Case Management Association.

Sallie Bachman, LMSW

Sallie is the Chief of Special Programs at HopeHealth in Florence, South Carolina. She has 25 years of experience in the field of public health, social work and mental health. She received her Bachelor's degree in social work from East Carolina University, and her Master's degree in social work from the University of South Carolina. Her passion is facilitating personal growth in individuals so they can thrive within their potential and purpose. Entering her twelfth year of service at a federally qualified health center, Sallie has enjoyed influencing program development, synchronizing teams, and adapting to an ever-changing healthcare industry.